

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Movements of Many People, Newberrians, and Those Who Visit Newberry.

Yesterday was Maundy Thursday. The cold spell about Elser came on then. Fires are in order.

Lee surrendered to Grant April 9, 1865.

The Jewish Feast of the Passover (Nissan 15) falls on Saturday, April 11.

The Winthrop daughters will meet with Miss Corrie Lee Havard on Friday afternoon, April 10, at 4:30 o'clock.

The Rev. J. M. Carrison, of Anderson, will preach in the A. R. P. church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

The Rev. J. M. Carrison, of Anderson, will preach in the A. R. P. church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mr. L. C. Livingstone breaks the ice and announces himself a candidate for supervisor. Come right along, all ye candidates, the water is fine.

Rev. J. G. Huggins, of Denmark, will be in Newberry next week with the Rev. J. N. Booth at West End Baptist church in a revival meeting.

The last lyceum attraction will appear at the high school Tuesday, April 14. Mrs. Fisk promises to entertain us very delightfully, indeed.

Deputy Sheriff William Dorroh went to La Garage, Ga., during the week and arrested Philip Brabamama on a charge of breach of trust.

Mrs. Myer Mittle, a former resident of Newberry was operated on in a Columbia hospital on Wednesday and is in a critical condition.

In a fine game of ball on the Newberry diamond on Wednesday afternoon Wofford defeated Newberry by a score of 2 to nothing.

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary society of the Church of the Redeemer will meet at the parsonage Monday afternoon, April 13, at 4:30 o'clock, just after the egg hunt.

Mr. F. Z. Wilson was taken to the hospital in Columbia and operated on on Wednesday at noon. He is in a very critical condition but at latest reports on Thursday his condition was considered favorable.

Church of the Redeemer.

(Rev. Edward Fulenwider, pastor.) Nothing preventing, the following will be the programme of divine services at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer Easter Sunday:

6:00 a. m. Matin service, and communion. This early service is very interesting and impressive.

11:15 a. m. The regular morning service, reception of members and communion.

10:15 a. m. The Sunday school meets. The "blue ship" is still leading. What will be the position of your ship Sunday?

6:30 p. m. There will be an interesting Easter service by the children. Songs, recitations, exercises, etc., will make up the programme. Notice the hour, 6:30. This early hour is selected on account of the small children who take part in the services.

There will be Easter music at all the services.

The public is cordially invited to attend all the services.

Salter-Ott.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Salter, of Chappells, was the scene of a beautiful marriage Tuesday morning, when their youngest daughter, Miss Annie Lee, became the bride of Mr. Mark Ott, of Bracenville, a young and prosperous business man. The Salter's home was artistically decorated for the occasion.

Promptly at 12 o'clock the marriage party entered the parlor followed by the bride-elect on the arm of the groom, accompanied by the pastor, the Rev. J. T. Miller, of Waterloo, pastor of the Methodist church, who performed the ceremony. The bride is an accomplished young lady of business talent and a teacher of the public schools. She taught the past session the school at Branchville, which has just closed.

After the ceremony an elaborate dinner and refreshments were served and the remainder of the day was spent in amusements of various kinds and some delightful music rendered by several of the bridal party. On Wednesday following, Mr. and Mrs. Ott departed for their future home at Branchville.

Easter Services.

There will be services at the Silverstreet Lutheran church on Sunday night, Easter Sunday, at 8 o'clock. There will be songs and recitations by the children and young people. The public is cordially invited.

S. P. Koon,
Pastor.

NEWBERRY PENSIONERS.

List of Those On Confederate Roll of Honor—The Grey Lines Are Fast Thinning.

In Tuesday's Herald and News it was stated that Clerk of Court Goggans had received $4,500 for the Confederate pensioners for Newberry county. Through the courtesy and kindness of Miss Kate Maher of the comptroller general's office, who is the efficient pension clerk of that department, The Herald and News is able to print the names of the pensioners in Newberry county. The money is distributed as follows among the various classes:

In class A there are 2 pensioners at $72.00 each.

In class C 1 there are 10 pensioners at $48.00 each.

In class C 2 there are 59 pensioners at $24.00 each.

In class C 3 there are 9 pensioners at $48.00 each.

In class C 4 there are 87 pensioners at $24.00 each.

In reading over the list one will be impressed with the fact of the absence of several names that appeared on the list last year. In the list as printed today there are two names that have but recently passed to the great beyond and they both came together in the same class—Moorman Ruff and E. W. Reese. The grey lines are fast thinning and it will not be many years before all of them will have answered the last great roll call. It was 49 years yesterday when Lee surrendered to Grant at Appomattox. The following is the list of the pension roll for Newberry county:

An Error Corrected.

In giving in the last issue of The Herald and News an account of the meeting of the stockholders of the Newberry Savings Bank an error was made in the list of directors. The name of C. E. Summer, who has been for a number of years one of the directors of this bank and who is president of the Summer Bros. Co., one of the leading mercantile establishments of the city, was inadvertently omitted from the list. In order that the record may be kept straight, the following is a correct list of the directors of this bank: E. B. Copeland, L. W. Floyd, E. A. Griffin, J. K. Gilder, R. McC. Holmes, G. S. Mower, James McIntosh, W. D. Senn, C. E. Summer.

Death of Mrs. I. W. Walter.

News was received in Newberry on Wednesday of the sad and sudden death of Mrs. I. W. Walter, of Birmingham, Alabama. It was only a short time ago that Mrs. Walter passed through Newberry from a visit to her son in Columbia and at that time she was in excellent health and spirits. She will be pleasantly remembered in Newberry by the older inhabitants as Miss Cora Kingsmore. She was a niece of Mrs. Os Wells, of Newberry, and one of her sons, George C. Walter, married Miss Laura Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bowman. She has one other son, Mr. O. L. Walter, of Columbia.

Notice to Colored Teachers of Newberry County.

Teachers meeting will be held at the Hoge school building on Saturday, April 11, at 11 o'clock. Teachers please be present.

By order of county superintendent of education.

U. S. Gallman,
Colored Supervisor.

Mrs. J. S. J. Suber Better.

The many friends of Mrs. J. S. J. Suber will be pleased to know that she has returned from the hospital very much improved since the operation. Governor and Mrs. Blease paid kindly visits to see Mrs. Suber while there and when she was able to return home sent his car and she was carefully driven to the union station. Its to be remembered that J. S. J. Suber was and is one of the governor's personal friends and staunch supporters. That's the way Cole remembers and treats his friends. Subscriber.

Special Easter Services Central Methodist Church.

On next Sunday morning at Central Methodist church Rev. J. E. Carlisle will preach and will take as his subject "The Resurrection of Christ." The choir, under the direction of Mr. R. E. Allen will render two anthems, appropriate for Easter. The first will be "Crown Him With Many Crowns," by Roberts, and the second "The Glory of God in Nature," by Beethoven. In addition to these very beautiful anthems, Mrs. G. W. Connor will sing "Open the Gates," by Mrs. J. F. Knapp. Mrs. Connor has had numerous requests for a repetition of this song, and it will be recalled by all who were present at the Sacred Concert that her singing of this was one of the most enjoyable numbers of the evening. In the evening at 8 o'clock, Rev. J. E. Carlisle will preach on "Christ: Our Passover." Special music has also been prepared for the evening service. The public is very cordially invited to the services of Central Methodist church.

NEWBERRY ELKS.

Held Delightful Session—Delegates to Anderson—Much Interest In Order.

At the regular meeting of the Newberry Lodge of Elks held on Tuesday evening, the newly elected officers were installed for the ensuing year. The installation was conducted by Eugene S. Blease, the retiring exalted ruler. The attendance was good and interest and enthusiasm in the order was evidenced on all sides. After the installation an excellent dinner was served to the members. Messrs. Cole, L. Blease, Fred. H. Dominick and E. D. Pease were elected to represent Newberry lodge at the laying of the corner stone of the new home which is being built by the lodge at Anderson. The exercises incident to the laying of this corner stone will be held on April 16.

A Beautiful Home Wedding.

A marriage of great interest was solemnized on Wednesday night, when Miss Martha Johnstone became the bride of Mr. W. W. Coleman, of Aiken. It was a quiet home wedding, the guests being chiefly relatives and close friends and neighbors. The typical Southern ancestral home of Senator Alan Johnstone was beautifully decorated in white and green, excepting the dining room, where a lovely arrangement of white and yellow appeared, the centerpiece being Calla lilies and maiden hair ferns.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. D. Keer, pastor of the bride, the bridal party standing at the extreme rear end of the wide hall under a beautiful arrangement of white blossoms. Across the middle of the hall white ribbon was stretched and at the opening strains of the wedding march (Lohengrins), played by Mrs. E. B. Setzler, two little ribbon boys, Alan McCutcheon and Laurens Mills, descended the broad stairway and untying the ribbon, allowed the bridal party to pass through. They were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Carolyn Cromer, her dress being of white satin, trimmings of silver lace and tulle, carrying white carnations.

Immediately preceding the bride came the little ring bearer, Martha Vance Ellesor, who wore a dainty dress of white batiste with trimmings of val lace and satin ribbon, carrying the ring in a Calla lily. In a lovely dress of white crepe meior, trimmings of hand made princess lace, her veil beautifully draped in the new hood style, caught up with orange blossoms and carrying an armful of Easter lilies, came the bride, on the arm of her father.

The landing of the stairway being so near the front entrance a very effective picture was presented as the bridal party descending the stairs went the length of the hall.

Immediately after the ceremony the guests were invited into the dining room where an elaborate salad course was served. Mr. and Mrs. Coleman left immediately after on the 8:55 train for Aiken, the home of the groom. The bride's going away suit was of new blue silk moire, coat suit.

Mrs. Coleman, as Miss Martha Johnstone, was one of Newberry's most popular and lovely daughters and will be sadly missed by her large circle of friends. She received a very large number of presents of silver, cut glass and linen.

The out of town guests were: All persons who have left papers he certainly made no mistake.

Mr. J. Bruce Coleman, Columbia; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fowles, Columbia; Mrs. Coleman and Misses Coleman, Aiken; Mr. and Mrs. Proho, Aiken; Mr. Brodie, Aiken; Mr. J. L. Kennerley, Winnsboro; Mr. and Mrs. George McCutchen, Columbia; Masters Alan and George McCutchen, Columbia; Mr. and Mrs. Laurens Mills, Camden; Master Laurens Mills, Camden; Miss Todd, Laurens; Mr. Alan Johnstone, Jr., Columbia; Mr. W. C. McLain, Columbia; Mrs. Moise, Sumter; Misses Annie Mae and Leola Bedenbaugh, Kiblers Bridge.

To the Voters of Newberry County.

Six years ago I went before you as a candidate for county commissioner and was elected. Two years ago I stood for reelection and you elected me by a nice majority. I am thankful to you for the confidence which you have thus twice placed in me, and I have striven, in return for that confidence, to merit your endorsement. At the earnest solicitation of many of the voters of the county I have decided to make the race this year for the office of county supervisor, and already having had six years connection with the office, I believe that I am well qualified to serve you in that office faithfully and efficiently. This I will say, that I will on all occasions be found working to the best interest of the people at large.

Respectfully,
L. C. Livingstone.
